

Reimagining Fundraising:

Meeting Today's Challenges and Tomorrow's Opportunities

> June 3, 2025 Not-for-Profit Symposium

> > Christy Cole

Warm up:

What words come to mind when you hear "fundraising"?

Today, we will discuss...

- ✓ The current landscape of philanthropy--challenges and opportunities
- ✓ Strategies to meet the moment

Diversifying funding sources...and finding new donors
Understanding and overcoming psychological barriers to giving
Working "above and below the line" of the gift planning horizon
Cultivating and stewarding legacy gifts
Maximizing board engagement
Partnering with other nonprofits

✓ The importance of cultivating an abundance mindset

Hot Topics in Philanthropy

The Exodus of Everyday Donors Is Bad for America. Here's How to Stop It.

Meet the Moment: A Call to Action for Philanthropy in 2025 (and Beyond)

MacKenzie Scott's $19 billion in donations has been "transformational"

How Philanthropy Can Bring Red and Blue Together

Gam makes of almost every kind have an abundance of opportunities to unify us for the common good.

How Nonprofits Are Fundraising Amid 'Scary, Challenging Time' After cuts in federal spending, charities are making carefully v appeals to donors to continue critical programs.

Diversifying Funding Sources

Typical Nonprofit Revenue Sources
Individuals and Families
Events and sponsorships
Government grants
Institutional grants
Earned Revenue
Corporate grants
Planned Giving
Investment income

Innovative Revenue Opportunities
Loans & program related investments
Cause marketing
Peer to peer
Crowd-funding
Giving Circles

Understanding Barriers to Giving

According to a recent National Center for Family Philanthropy study, these are donor's psychological barriers...

- Too many choices
- Burdensome administrative tasks
- Lack of urgency Fear of public attention
- Worry about needing to learn more to make decisions Lack of trust
- Uncomfortable family dynamics
- Uncomfortable with risk and uncertainty
- Scarcity mindset
- 10. Lack of time

-
_

Overcoming Barriers to Giving

Act Reframe Simplify Connect Get Help

Understanding the Charitable Planning Horizon

Why?

Inspiration, Vision, Purpose, Goals, Outcomes

How?

Timing Immediate Monthly Multi-year Legacy

Assets
Stocks, bonds, and mutual funds Life insurance and retirement

accounts Charitable bequests

Real estate Cryptocurrency ...

Giving Vehicles
Donor advised funds Beneficiary designations Charitable Remainder Trusts Charitable Lead Trusts Charitable Gift Annuities

Cultivating and Stewarding Legacy Gifts

A legacy plan is so much more than just the monetary gift and the nuts and bolts of the charitable disbursements themselves.

Legacy Planning..

- ✓ Gets people excited about being a part of solving local/regional/national/international problems and safeguarding areas where things are doing well.
 ✓ Unlocks financial resources that might otherwise leave our region
- Provides an opportunity for people to share their values and vision for the future
- ✓ Creates a reservoir of future support to ensure that non-profits are vibrant and resilient--ready to weather future storms that we have not yet contemplated
- Captures the unique giving stories of every donor that become a part of our communal history
- ✓ Creates a culture of philanthropy that will be a part of our region for generations to come

Maximizing Board Engagement Leaders Determine path for organizational growth and lead fundraising strategy Donors Make a gift that is personally meaningful. Ambassadors Introduce new people to the organization and represent the organization in the community Stewards Express gratitude to supporters and keep them engaged Everyone has unique skills, relationships and personal style to bring to these roles!

Identifying Board Member Superpowers

Most Board Member "Superpowers" fall into these categories:

- > Expertise/Knowledge
- ➤ Hidden Talent
- ➤ Motivation to Learn

Partnership With Other Nonprofits

3 Types of PartnershipCooperation
Coordination
Collaboration

How to make it work...
Candor and information sharing
Agreeing on what success looks like
Defining roles
Extending gratitude
Evaluating results

Cultivate an Abundance Mindset
Optimism		Collaboration
Possibilities	NEW RESULT	Trust
Opportunity		Long-term thinking

